

1. God is calling you to a deeper level of love, compassion, and caring.
2. God is calling you to a life of compassion and caring.
3. Compassionate & caring Christians see those around them that are hurting and wounded.
4. Your neighbor, as defined by Jesus' parable, is the person that enters your life who is wounded and in need.
5. Some of the greatest opportunities you have in life to impact people come disguised as interruptions.
6. Compassionate & caring Christians help when _____ else does.
7. It is not enough to simply see wounded people. You have to _____ something. 1 John 3:17-18

8. When you read the Bible, do you know what you find? God has a habit of using the most _____ people.
9. Every person that God uses has two characteristics - they _____ and are _____.
10. One of the easiest things to do is to find _____ why not to help, why not to care, and why not to get involved.
11. _____ doesn't change or affect the way you live, only a relationship with Christ does that.
12. When God works in my heart, and I decide to compassionately care for people, it is then that I begin to realize that the answer for a wounded heart is _____.
13. 1 John 4:20 says, "...for he that loveth not his brother who he has seen, how can he love God who he has not seen?"
14. When God's compassion begins to work in your heart, you no longer ask the question, "Who is my neighbor?" You ask, "What kind of neighbor am I?"
